Prominent Chinese Merchant Arrested For Attempted Bribery.

Yesterday morning Chu Gem, a prominent Chinese merchant stated to be a member of the firm of Quong Sam Kee & Co., was arrested on a charge of attempting to bribe a Custom House officer. For some time Chinese merchants have been importhundreds were there, ing large quantities of pills from saiting a few minutes for Her China, entering them at the Custom House as common medicinal pills, and the revenue officials decided to make investigations and closely scrutinize ambers followed in such rapid any new importation, to discover if possible the ingredients of the socalled medicinal preparation.

The authorities have learned that they were opium pills, used by the Chiuese while working in the fields, so they decided to confiscate any new consignments that should arrive at

The matter was placed in the hands of the Attorney-General's department, with the result of a criminal charge being made against the accused.

It is stated also that a civil suit will be entered against the defendant for making an alleged false entry at the Custom House.

Chu Gem was arrested about halfpast 9 yesterday morning, and was immediately released on bail. The hearing will come up this morning in the Police Court.

Summary of the Results of the Late Elections in U. S.

Elections were held in a number of States, with results as follows In New York, Roswell P. Flower (Democratic) was elected Governor by 45,000 plurality over J. Sloat Fassett (Republican); the other Democratic State officers were also elected; in the Legislature the Senate is Republican by a majority of four, and the Assembly is in doubt; the Democratic majority in New York city was over 58,000.

In Ohio, Major McKinley had a plurality of 21,000 over Governor Campbell (Democratic), and the Legislature is Republican, according to latest advices, by a majority on joint ballot of 43, thus insuring the election of a Republican Senator on the expiration of John Sherman's term.

In Massachusetts, Governor Russell (Democratic) was re-elected by a plurality of less than 7000 over Colonel Allen, the Republican nominee; the rest of the State officers and the Legislature are Republican.

In Pennsylvania, the Republican State Treasurer were elected by 58,000 and 53,000 majority.

In Iowa, Governor Boies (Demoity of about 9000 votes, and the remainder of the Democratic State ticket by a somewhat less vote; the Sponges, and tough Carriage Legislature stands, Senate Demoeratic, House Republican; with Republican majority on joint ballot.

No side shows are to be permitted within the Exposition grounds, Chicago. The Directory has decided that the entrance fee shall entitle the visitor to see everything within the enclosure. There will be, however, several theatres built and kept running, at which the finest talent in the world, it is expected, will appear, and visitors who choose to attend the performances will have to pay an admission fee. Such sights as "A Street in Cairo," will be free, but natives of oriental countries in a few cases will be allowed to charge a small fee to special performances of a theatrical nature.
